

Michelle Blue Photography

Meet your Photographer

Hi, I'm Michelle Blue, and I have been a photographer for 12 years!

I have always been in love with artistic expression, and I discovered the power of telling stories with images as a child.

I was born in Ecuador and have been travelling and living in different countries over the years, which has given me perspective, sensibility, and the knowledge to develop my photographic style, focusing on capturing the perfect imperfections that make us human

About my work

My work is inspired by the most real moments, free of forced poses. I believe that we are all beautifully unique and worthy of being portrayed. In my work I like to create a calm, fun and trusting space for each photo to capture this beauty worthy of being shown, so that your story is told just the way you want it to be told!

Capturing all that human beauty and detail and making them part of your unique journey.
